

Little Footprints Preschool

With your child every step of the way

Overview

Little Footprints Preschool is a new Mandarin immersion preschool opening in the Sunset district of San Francisco June 2011.

- Serving children ages from 2.5 to 5 years
- 100% Mandarin immersion
- A play- and environment-based curriculum
- Low student to teacher ratio: 6:1 to 8:1.
- Initially starting with 2 classes of 12-15 children each, with plans to grow to 4 classes (60-80 students total) over time

Mission

- Little Footprints Preschool promotes the linguistic, physical, social, emotional and cognitive development of young children. We create a nurturing, stimulating environment for children to learn and grow.
- We believe children learn through play and interacting with their environment, along with guidance and facilitation from well-trained teachers.

Faculty and Staff

- Loving, responsive and highly trained bilingual teachers with backgrounds in education and early childhood development
- Faculty receive ongoing training and development including four faculty training days per year
- Further enrichment will be provided by weekly visits from external instructors in topics such as music, art and gymnastics
- All faculty are certified in CPR, Preventive Health and Safety, and Pediatric First Aid; and undergo background clearance checks
